We are looking for a full-time

Associate (m | f | x) - International Arbitration

job profil.

Our practice is the leading arbitration practice in the region, with a stellar track record in commercial and investment arbitration. We handle some of the largest and most complex disputes across industries, including banking, pharma, telecom, construction, m&a energy, media and automotive.

As a successful applicant you will become part of our tightly knit international arbitration team and work closely with partners and colleagues on high-profile international and commercial arbitrations as well as investment disputes. You will be directly involved in proceedings and consultations, formulating case theory and strategy, drafting submissions and preparing witness and expert evidence. Furthermore, you will be managing and conducting research and document review processes and liaise with clients, witnesses, experts, tribunals and opposing counsels.

we are looking for.

- completed legal education (in Austria or Germany);
- basic understanding of and interest in commercial arbitrations (practical experience, moot court, LL.M.);
- excellent written and spoken English (and, ideally, good command of a Slavic language);
- positive approach to challenging legal work in an international environment;
- ability to cooperate, communicate and work in a team

we offer.

- actual involvement in high-profile arbitrations;
- direct cooperation with partners and clients;
- diverse and autonomous work in a friendly, open, international working atmosphere;
- close cooperation with international offices and other departments;
- a clearly structured and transparent career path;
- mentor and buddy Program, further education via the Schönherr Learning Hub

The gross salary per month amounts to a minimum of € 3.200.-, with a clear commitment to paying more in line with your professional experience and qualifications.
